

Agreement and Execution

The primary body of this agreement, as well as any rules that Fieres ICO Platform has posted or may post from time to time, comprise the content of this agreement. All of the regulations will form an important part of this agreement and will have the same legal force as the main body. Unless otherwise stated, this agreement applies to any service provided by Fieres ICO Platform and its affiliates (hereafter referred to as “Fieres ICO Platform Service”). Before using any Fieres ICO Platform Service, you must thoroughly read this agreement, paying special attention to the language stated in bold font. If you have any questions about this agreement, you can contact Fieres ICO Platform. Regardless of whether you have carefully read this agreement prior to using Fieres ICO Platform Service, you will be bound by it as long as you use Fieres ICO Platform Service. You may not claim that this agreement is void or rescinded because you did not read it or because you did not obtain a response from Fieres ICO Platform to your consultation. You agree to accept and abide by the terms of this agreement. If you do not agree to this agreement, you must stop registering/activating or using the Fieres ICO Platform Service immediately. Fieres ICO Platform reserves the right to change or amend this agreement unilaterally and its rules at any time and without prior notification to you, and will do so on the website. After being announced on the website, the updated agreement and rules will take effect instantly and automatically. If you do not agree to the applicable change, you must discontinue using the Fieres ICO Platform Service immediately. You will be regarded to have accepted the modified agreement and rules if you continue to use Fieres ICO Platform Service.

Due diligence and KYC

The goal of customer due diligence is to prevent the use of assets and property obtained illegally in the economic activities of credit institutions and financial institutions, as well as in the services provided by them, with the goal of preventing the exploitation of the financial system and economic for money laundering and terrorist financing. Customer due diligence aims to implement the Know-Your-Customer principle, which requires a customer to be identified and the appropriateness of transactions to be examined based on the customer's primary business and payment history. Furthermore, client due diligence helps to uncover unexpected circumstances in a customer's operations or situations in which a Company employee has reason to be concerned.

Customer due diligence also helps to discover anomalous circumstances in a customer's activities or situations where a Company employee has grounds to suspect money laundering or terrorist funding.

The verification procedure is not required in order to use the Company's services. The Company reserves the right to request the completion of a verification procedure at any time by submitting the first identity papers (ID/passport, driving license).

The Company must not engage in transactions or form contacts with anonymous or unidentifiable persons as part of its anti-money laundering and anti-terrorist financing efforts. The Company is required by law to waive a transaction or the establishment of a business relationship if a person fails to provide sufficient information to identify the person, or if the Company discovers facts whose characteristics refer to the use of criminal proceeds, terrorist financing, the commission of related offences, or an attempt thereof, or concerning which the Company suspects or knows constitutes money laundering, either terrorist financing, or the commission of related offences, or concerning which the Company suspects or knows constitutes money laundering, either terrorist financing, or Furthermore, if a person fails to present sufficient information to apply, the law prohibits the establishment or continuation of business connections.

Under current law, the Company has the right to use the services of a third party under a contract that is the subject of which is the continued performance of activities and continued taking of steps required for the provision of (a) service(s) by the Company to its customers and that would normally be performed and taken by the Company itself, taking into account the special requirements and restrictions provided by law. Agents, subcontractors, and other people to whom the Company transfers activities connected to the provision of services provided as a rule by the Company in its economic activities are examples of third parties under this section.

The "KYC and due diligence measures description" provided on our website contains a full description of the due diligence measures, as well as the required papers and information from users.

Fieres ICO Platform reserves the right to gather customers' identification information as part of its anti-money laundering (AML) policy. The Fieres ICO Platform Privacy Policy governs the processing and storage of this data.

Profiles and wallets of users

The user profile includes all information submitted by the user or collected about the user, as well as the user's wallet and any balances in the wallet.

We reserve the right, in our sole discretion and without obligation to you, to refuse to allow you register a profile and/or open a wallet, with or without reason.

Within 30 days of receiving such a request, the user's profile and wallet can be closed at the user's request. Before requesting the wallet's deletion, the user must withdraw any available virtual currency balances.

If a user's profile and wallet are locked at the user's request and the user fails to withdraw virtual currency holdings before the profile and wallet are locked, we reserve the right to levy a one-time fee equal to the whole amount of virtual currency balances in the wallet to be locked.

The user's profile and wallet are considered abandoned if at least one of the following requirements is met: The user has not accessed his profile or wallet in over a year (365 days). The user has not filed any verification requests with at least one authentic document for more than three months (90 days).

Transactions Limit

Min. transaction size (once): £ 200

Max. transaction size (once): £ 50,000

Cancelling orders or restricting user access

- In the event of a user's illegal activity (such as exploiting vulnerabilities in the company's blockchain or trading platform),
- a request from law enforcement agencies/token owner/coin owner,

- or if the company suspects the user of money laundering or terrorist financing, the Company has the right to cancel the order.

The Company has the authority to place a hold on a user's account if:

- the company has detected suspicious user activity;
- the company has detected an orphan transaction or a user's attempt to perform a non-existent transaction or simulate a transaction that is not confirmed in the blockchain);
- the company has observed that the client is trying to use blockchain vulnerabilities unfairly;
- the company has received a motivated request or interference about the illegality of the transaction from the developers of coin or token;
- the verification period expires;
- the company has received the request from law enforcement agencies;
- the company suspects the user's involvement in money laundering or terrorist financing.

If the user feels that his mailbox has been hacked or that a third party has gotten access to his account or is attempting to log in to his account, account freezing can be enabled. To do so, the client must go to their account on the company's platform and select the "freeze account" button. If the client voluntarily initiates account freezing, the user's account can be unfrozen via the Company's support. In order to restore an account that has been frozen, the user must go through the verification procedure again and supply the Company with additional information regarding the user's activity prior to account freezing so that the Company may verify that the user's data is correct.

The corporation has the authority to halt the transaction if the following conditions are met:

- the Company detects that the transaction comes from suspicious sources (wallets);
- the transaction does not have confirmations in blockchain;
- the transaction can be cancelled if it has an invalid status in the blockchain.

REWARDS

Rewards within the ecosystem are designed solely for internal use and may not hold any external market value. These rewards, which may take various forms such as staking or liquidity mining incentives, are subject to vesting schedules that control their release over time. Users should be aware that, while these rewards are valuable within the project, their external value may be minimal or non-existent. As such, users are advised to exercise their own judgement and discretion when participating in the ecosystem, understanding that any actions or decisions based on these rewards are at their own risk. The platform does not guarantee any specific value or return from these rewards and is not liable for any loss resulting from their use or reliance on them

Fieres ICO Platform Service User's Guide

During your usage of the Fieres ICO Platform Service on Fieres ICO Platform, you agree to the following covenants: All of your activities while using the Fieres ICO Platform Service will be in compliance with all applicable laws, regulations, regulatory documents, and Fieres ICO Platform rules, will not be in violation of public interests, public ethnics, or others' legitimate interests, will not constitute tax or fee evasion, and will not violate this agreement or relevant rules. If you breach any of the foregoing obligations and as a result incur any legal liability, you must independently assume all legal liabilities in your own name and keep Fieres ICO Platform blameless from any loss incurred as a result of such breach. You will operate in good faith, will not engage in unfair competition, will not disrupt the usual order of online transactions, and will not engage in any conduct unrelated to online transactions during any transaction with other members. You will not use any data on Fieres ICO Platform for commercial reasons, including but not limited to copying, disseminating, or otherwise using any data presented on Fieres ICO Platform without Fieres ICO Platform's prior written authorisation. You understand and accept that Fieres ICO Platform has the unilateral right to determine whether you have breached any of the covenants above and, based on such unilateral determination, apply relevant regulations and take actions thereunder, or cancel services to you, without your agreement or prior notice. Fieres ICO Platform shall have the right to close relevant orders and take such actions as necessary to protect the order and security of transactions on Fieres ICO Platform in the event of any malicious sale or buy, or any other events disrupting the market's normal sequence of transactions. If any effective legal documents issued by judicial or administrative authorities hold your violation or infringement, or if Fieres ICO Platform determines at its sole discretion that you have likely violated the terms of this agreement, the rules, or the laws and regulations, Fieres ICO Platform shall have the right to publish such alleged violations and Fieres ICO Platform's actions taken against you on Fieres ICO Platform. If you publish information on Fieres ICO Platform that allegedly violates or infringes on the law, other people's legitimate interests, this agreement, or the rules, Fieres ICO Platform reserves the right to remove it without warning and impose fines in accordance with the rules. Regarding any act you may have performed on Fieres ICO Platform, including those you may not have performed on Fieres ICO Platform but which have had an impact on Fieres ICO Platform and its users, Fieres ICO Platform shall have the unilateral right to determine its nature and whether it constitutes a violation of this agreement or any rules, and to impose appropriate punishments. You are responsible for keeping all evidence linked to your actions on your own and for any negative repercussions resulting from your failure to meet your burden of proof. If any third party suffers losses as a result of your alleged breach of your obligations, you will be fully responsible for all legal liabilities in your own name and keep Fieres ICO Platform blameless from any loss or further expenses. If, due to any alleged violation by you to the laws or this agreement, Fieres ICO Platform incurs any losses, is claimed by any third party for compensation or suffers any punishment imposed by any administrative authorities, you shall indemnify Fieres ICO Platform against any losses and expense caused thereby, including reasonable attorney's fee.

Liability's Scope and Limitations

Fieres ICO Platform Service shall be provided "as is" and "commercially available" by Fieres ICO Platform. However, Fieres ICO Platform disclaims any express or implied warranty with respect to the Fieres ICO Platform Service, including but not limited to application, lack of mistake or omission, continuity, accuracy, reliability, or fitness for a specific purpose. Meanwhile, Fieres ICO Platform makes no representation or assurance as to the efficacy, accuracy, correctness, reliability, quality, stability, completeness, or timeliness of the technology and information used by Fieres ICO Platform Service. You understand that the content on Fieres ICO Platform is self-published by users and may involve dangers or flaws. Fieres ICO Platform is only a transactional platform. Fieres ICO Platform is merely a platform for acquiring coin-related information, searching for transaction counterparties, and negotiating and conducting transactions; however, Fieres ICO Platform has no control over the quality, security, or legality of the coin involved in any transaction, the truthfulness or accuracy of transaction information, or the capacity of the parties to any transaction to perform their obligations under the transaction documents. You must make your own cautious judgments about the honesty, legality, and effectiveness of the coin and information in question, and you must accept any responsibilities or losses that may result. Fieres ICO Platform shall not be obligated to conduct a preliminary review of all users' information data, transaction activity, or any other transaction-related issues unless expressly required by laws and regulations or any of the following circumstances occur: Fieres ICO Platform has reasonable grounds to believe that a specific member or transaction may be in violation of the law or agreement. Fieres ICO Platform Service was misunderstood by you. Any other losses incurred as a result of using the Fieres ICO Platform Service that are not attributable to Fieres ICO Platform. Fieres ICO Platform shall not be liable for any failure or delay in service caused by regular information network equipment maintenance, connection errors, computer, communication, or other system errors, power outages, strikes, labor disputes, riots, revolutions, chaos, insufficiency of production or materials, fire, flood, tornado, blast, war, governmental acts, or judicial orders. You agree to hold Fieres ICO Platform, its contractors, and its licensors, as well as their respective directors, officers, employees, and agents, harmless from and against any and all claims and expenses, including attorneys' fees, arising out of your use of the Website, including but not limited to your violation of this Agreement.

Agreement Termination

You agree that Fieres ICO Platform has the right to terminate all or part of the Fieres ICO Platform Service to you, and to temporarily or permanently freeze (cancel) the authorisations of your account on Fieres ICO Platform at any time, for any reason, and that Fieres ICO Platform will not be liable to you; however, Fieres ICO Platform will have the right to keep and use the transaction data, records, and other information related to such account. Fieres ICO Platform reserves the right to directly terminate this agreement by canceling your account, as well as to permanently freeze (cancel) the authorisations of your Fieres ICO Platform account and withdraw the associated Fieres ICO Platform account in the event of any of the following events: When this agreement (including the rules) is amended, you expressly state and notify Fieres ICO Platform of your unwillingness to accept the amended service agreement; any other circumstances where Fieres ICO Platform deems it should terminate services to you; you allegedly register or register in any other person's name as an Fieres ICO Platform user again, directly or indirectly; the main content of user's information that you have provided is untruthful, inaccurate, outdated, or incomplete; when this agreement (including the rules) is amended, you expressly state. Fieres ICO Platform has no obligation to maintain or disclose any information in your account or to transfer any information you have not seen or provided to you or any third party after the account service is terminated or the authorisations of your account on Fieres ICO Platform are permanently froze (cancelled). You agree that even if your agreement with Fieres ICO Platform is terminated, Fieres ICO Platform retains the right to: maintain your user information and all transaction information collected during your use of the Fieres ICO Platform Service. If you violate any laws, this agreement, or the regulations while using the Fieres ICO Platform Service, you may be held liable under this agreement. After Fieres ICO Platform suspends or terminates Fieres ICO Platform Service to you, your transaction activities prior to such suspension or termination will be handled according to the following principles, and you will be responsible for any disputes, losses, or extra expenses incurred as a result of such suspension or termination, and you will hold Fieres ICO Platform harmless from any losses or expenses: Fieres ICO Platform reserves the right to remove information connected to any un-traded cryptocurrency tokens that you have uploaded to Fieres ICO Platform prior to the suspension or termination of services at the same time as the suspension or termination of services. If you have made a purchase agreement with another member prior to the suspension or termination, but the agreement has not been fulfilled, Fieres ICO Platform reserves the right to erase information about the buy agreement and the coins concerned. If you have a purchase agreement with another member that has been partially fulfilled prior to the suspension or termination, Fieres ICO Platform may choose not to delete the transaction; however, Fieres ICO Platform reserves the right to notify your counterparty of the situation at the same time as the suspension or termination.
